

Fair Work Ombudsman Webinar

Workplace essentials for young workers, including international students

Wednesday 24 July 2024 | 11am AEST | 30 mins + Q&A | Introductory level | Free

Are you a young person looking to work or are currently working in Australia? Join the Fair Work Ombudsman to learn:

- some handy tips on starting a new job
- important information on your workplace rights and entitlements
- how to resolve workplace issues if they happen

A recording of this webinar will be made available for 14 days to everyone who registers for the session.

Register now

New resources to alert international students to money muling scams

Following resources are to alert students regarding an increase in money muling scams. The resources are translated into 7 languages:

- Don't Be A Mule Flyer - Department of Education, Australian Government
- Don't Be A Mule Factsheet - Department of Education, Australian Government

Austrac, Australia's anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing regulator has also recently released a guide on money muling:

Financial Crime Guide: Combating the exploitation of international students as money mules